

MF-197 Red Flag - 2017 (1)

Red Flag is an annual, advanced aerial-combat training exercise hosted by Nellis AFB. Participants include the USAF, USMC, and numerous NATO air forces. The exercise uses the Nevada Test & Training Range north west of Las Vegas covering 60x100 nm. This mission involves the deployment of participant aircraft from home bases.

Aircraft F-15, F-16, F-22 (Or any appropriate aircraft)

Deployment Flights

1. F15 aircraft from 159th FW. Jacksonville AFB, KLRF, to Nellis AFB, KLSV. 1704 nm

2. F16 aircraft from 20th Fighter Wing. Shaw AFB, KSSC, to Nellis AFB. 1693nm

3. F22 aircraft from 1st Fighter Wing. Langley AFB, KLF1, - Nellis AFB. 1849nm

NOTAMS:

Total 5246 nm.

Three flights for ribbon credit

Aircraft Ferry Ranges

F16 2280 nm

F15 3000 nm.

F22 1740 nm. (Simulate air refuel - adjust fuel in flight}