

FF-267 China Postal Airlines - Boeing Freighter Conversion

Founded in 1996, CPA is owned by China Postal Bureau (51%) and China Southern Airlines (41%) and specialises in express mail. Cargo services were added in 2007. Boeing's freighter conversion programme transitions passenger aircraft into freighters thereby extending their economic lifespan.

China Postal Airlines has acquired 10 B737 and 7 B757 "used" aircraft for conversion to freighters at the Boeing facility in Shanghai.
